

directions from Rome airport to Il Palazzo Sabino

Clampino airport is south of Rome and just 1 km from the big ringroad around Rome called ANULARE or GRA this is the road you have to take once you out of the airport.

Exit the airport , there is only one exit with a police station in the middle, after the station/check point, turn right on the main Road to Rome, stay on the right lane and after 1 mile there is a junction for the GRA (ringroad) you have to turn right at the junction following green sign for GRA Firenze – Napoli.

Once you are into the ring road you have to drive for around 20 miles until the exit for Firenze. Be careful here it is not very well indicated.

You exit the GRA and take another motorway following always Firenze.
Get into a pay toll where you have just to get a ticket (the payment is at the exit) and at the next junction follow sign for A1 Firenze again .

you are now on the biggest motorway in Italy, the Rome-Milan. A1

After around 35 km exit at ORTE , after the paytoll turn right and follow the E45 dual carriageway in the direction of Cesena. This road cuts through most of Umbria, some Tuscany and then heads towards Emilia Romagna.

there is only one junction where you have to exit on the right following directions of CESENA-PERUGIA . you will pass TODI, PERUGIA, CITTA' DI CASTELLO and then Exit at Sansepolcro you will notice a big hotel on your right called Borgo Palace Hotel.

at the exit there is a roundabout and you have to turn left in direction of arezzo you pass a petrol station on your right called AGIP cross the river bridge
after it you have to turn on the right in the direction of Anghiari.

Follow this straight road for 4 km, you pass a roundabout Keep on straight .

you pass another petrol station on your left called ESSO after 200 mt you have to turn right into a little gravel road where the house is.
just 10 mt before it there is a little white and red sign with Anghiari (I borghi più belli d'Italia).

once you are on the little road you will see some big houses on your right and fields on your left.

Our place is the 4th and last of these houses on the right
And you will notice an owl on the little niche.
