

directions from Rome airport to Il Palazzo Sabino exit the airport in the direction of ROME after 5 km, before to get into Rome, there is a double junction for Naples and then for Florence , take the second junction in the direction of FIRENZE (pay lots of attention to this point) you exit on the right then ... keep the left lane and you end up in a 3 carriage road. this is the ring road of Rome called "Grande Raccordo Anulare" and you are driving in direction north. you have to drive there for about 25 KM and exit the ring road following direction of A1 FIRENZE (carefull because is not well indicated) . Once you exit the ring on the right you take the left lane and drive for a few hundreds meters ending up on a left turn (well indicated) for Firenze. you will be driving on a motorway following always Firenze , get into a pay toll where you have just to get a ticket (the payment is at the exit) and at the next junction follow sign for A1 Firenze again .

you are now on the biggest motorway in Italy, the Rome-Milan.

After around 35 km exit at ORTE , after the paytoll turn right and follow the E45 dual carriageway in the direction of Cesena. This road cuts through most of Umbria, some Tuscany and then heads towards Emilia Romagna.

there is only one junction where you have to exit on the right following directions of CESENA-PERUGIA . you will pass TODI, PERUGIA, CITTA' DI CASTELLO and then Exit at Sansepolcro you will notice a big hotel on your right called Borgo Palace Hotel.

at the exit there is a roundabout and you have to turn left in direction of arezzo you pass a petrol station on your right called AGIP cross the river bridge
after it you have to turn on the right in the direction of Anghiari.

Follow this straight road for 4 km, you pass a roundabout Keep on straight .

you pass another petrol station on your left called ESSO after 200 mt you have to turn right into a little gravel road where the house is.

just 10 mt before it there is a little white and red sign with Anghiari (I borghi più belli d'Italia).

once you are on the little road you will see some big houses on your right and fields on your left.

Our place is the 4th and last of these houses on the right
And you will notice an owl on the little niche.
